Scams And Frauds!

Mike King

Detective Mike King is a graduate of Northwestern State University and played in the NFL for the New York Jets before joining the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Department 13 years ago.

King served in corrections, patrol, youth service, internal affairs and is now in the financial crimes section at the Sheriff's Department.

He has successfully investigated numerous cases involving exploitation, identity theft and many other types of criminal fraud.

FREE ON A TREE

Our "Courageous Committee" (aka Red Badge Committee) has had an overwhelming response from members for donations of warm clothing for the homeless.

We have one more Tuesday that we can donate items before items are distributed to the homeless. So please bring your final items next Tuesday.

Our "Courageous" members thank all the Rotarians who have donated and helped to fill several boxes!

Application deadline is February 18, 2020.

District 6190 Foundation Banquet—February 8th Cordaro's Event Center, 3055 Knight St., Shreveport

Club will pay the $25 registration for our Rotarians. Great fun event with silent and live auctions. Each high bid on an item is submitted to The Rotary Foundation in the high bidder's name and will apply toward your Paul Harris Fellowship account. Let Judy Bellew know if you would like to go so she can register you.

Family members are encouraged to come but the Member will need to pay for them.
