Michael Bertaut

Healthcare Economist Michael Bertaut is a Certified Health Consultant and Professional of the Academy of Healthcare Management.

He has more than 30 years of analytical experience in the healthcare, telecom and retail industry sectors. He was on the ground in Washington, D.C. when the healthcare reform law (PPACA) was written, and has taken part in more than 1,100 public discussions on healthcare costs and the impact of reform since 2009.

Mike is a fellow of the Academy of Applied Politics at Louisiana State University, and author of the Hermes Award winning healthcare blog. He earned his MBA and BA from LSU and is recognized as a national commentator on healthcare reform, quoted in the Washington Post, Chicago Tribune, and state and local publications. He is a regular guest on the Talk Louisiana radio show and has just celebrated his 35th year as a cancer survivor.

For the last 15 years, Bertaut has been the Healthcare Economist and Exchange Coordinator for Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Louisiana.

“The Courageous” Committee

Our current red badge committee has adopted a “Free On A Tree” project. Last Tuesday was our first collection day to bring warm winter clothing and Rotarians filled two large boxes with items to give to the homeless population.

Next Tuesday, be sure to bring some items for this project! Check your closets for warm items you no longer use (women/men/children coats, scarfs, hats, gloves). This will be your final opportunity to bring the items this year.

Members of the current Red Badge Committee are:

Jon Ellis (Group Leader) Jeff Brasher Bill Franklin
Walt Gaskins Johnathon Goff Robby Latham
Akmal Mikhail Libby Murphy (Group Advisor)

(Left) Jon Ellis showed a coat example of the items we need.

(Right) Robby Latham provided information about how the project developed.

Know a deserving high school sophomore who would benefit from this great camp? Rotarian children and grandchildren are also eligible. Check out the website www.ryla6190.com.

Food Bank Project—Tuesday, January 21

Last Tuesday Rotarians from three clubs (Shreveport, South Shreveport and RiverBend) gathered to fill backpacks at the Food Bank location. Chronically hungry children are provided with a backpack of food to take home for the weekend and holidays. Each 7-10 pound weekly bag includes items such as granola bars, fruit juice and pop top canned food. We had enough Rotarians there that we were able to have two assembly lines going.

Rotarians representing our club were David Ginsburg, Margaret Wallace, Akmal Mikhaul and Judy Bellew.
