In April 2019 Mayor Perkins appointed Brandon Fail as Economic Development Coordinator for the City of Shreveport.

Brandon's aim is to attract high-quality employers, support economic growth and enhance opportunity and prosperity in our city.

After receiving his undergraduate degree in government from Harvard University, Brandon attended Yale Law School where he earned his J.D. degree in 2006.

Upon leaving Yale, he worked with McKinsey & Company in New York as an engagement manager and then founded The Shoplift, an e-commerce social shopping mall. By 2018, Brandon had relocated to Shreveport and opened The Levee, Shreveport's first farm-to-table restaurant.

Gard Wayt's Update From His Children

"Dear friends and colleagues of Gard,

Gard's therapy is progressing nicely. Each day he works with speech, occupational and physical therapists. He's learning how to maintain and manage his VAD (ventricular assist device), an important extension that's given him a new lease on life and improved health.

Thanks for your continued prayers and correspondence. Dad appreciates the support. We'll continue to update you until he returns to Shreveport and resumes his activities with you.

Peace,
