NOON — 12:00
Meeting
October 6,
2020

Keynote

David Raines Community Health Center

In order to better accommodate our members attending on Zoom we will start our meetings at 12:00 noon. This will allow maximum time for our presenters and time for questions to be relayed to the presenter from our Zoom attendees during Q&A time. Please plan your arrival at the in-person meeting for this earlier start.

Willie White III

In the Rotary year 2019-2020 David Raines Community Health Center (DRCHC) received a $4,000 grant from our club to purchase a Welch Allyn Spot Vision Screener. This equipment will be used in DRCHC's school-based health program for underserved children on the school site.

Rotarian Willie White III is the CEO of David Raines Community Health Centers with over 37 years of experience in the health care industry, in both profit and non-profit organizations.

He received his B.S. in health education and a Master of Public Health (M.P.H.) degree from Tennessee State University. He is also a graduate of the Johnson & Johnson Health Care Executive Program, Anderson Graduate School of Management, University of California (UCLA) and the Executive Development Program, The Wharton School of Business, University of Pennsylvania.

Willie joined our club in 2012, served as a Club Director in 2015-2016 and is a Paul Harris Fellow.

New Member and Returning Member

Jeffrey Kerst, a Hot Spring native, graduated magna cum laude as a University Science Scholar from the University of Arkansas-Little Rock with a major in biology and a minor in chemistry. He then attended LSU School of Dentistry where he received many honors as he served in leadership positions with the American Student Dental Association and the American Dental Association.

After receiving his D.D.S. degree he practiced as a rover dentist in several practices in Texas while his wife (Dr. Allison Haynie Kerst) received her dental degree. Jeffrey joined the Shreveport practice of Dr. Gary Gaskey and is now the owner of the practice, Kerst & Caskey Family Dentistry, 8789 Line Ave. in Shreveport.

Jeffrey has participated, even prior to his membership, in our Common Ground service project. His sponsor is Connor Peterson and his classification is Dentistry, Family Practice.

Re-joining us is Rotarian Tim Quinn. Tim was a member of the Rotary Club of Monroe from 1992-1997 and upon relocating to Shreveport he joined our club from 1998-2013. He served as a club director during the Rotary year 2010-2011.

Tim is senior vice president and trust officer at Argent Financial Group with offices at 333 Texas St., Ste 699 in Shreveport. He received his B.B.A. degree from University of Louisiana at Monroe (ULM), his MBA at LSUS and attended American Bankers Association National Graduate Trust School at Northwestern University.

He previously served on the Board for Samaritan Counseling Center and is a long term current member of the Board of Directors for The Strand Theatre and the Board of Trustees for the ULM Foundation.

Tim and wife Leslie Quinn, both Paul Harris Fellows, are our only husband-wife duo who are members of our club.

Tim's classification remains Banking, Trusts and his sponsor is Leslie Quinn.

LET'S DO THIS! MAKE IT PERSONAL!

Got a litter problem on your street where you live, work or worship? Want to gather a group to clean up the litter? Make this personal! Talk with Judy Bellew and we'll gather a team! This can actually be FUN!

Hold a Fall Cleanup

Join the “Power Hour Cleanup”

Pick a date to clean up litter for one hour in an area you choose during September 19 - October 31

Goodbye Summer & heat, Hello Fall!!

COVID –19 Concerns: according to experts, outdoor fresh air, wearing a mask & social distancing greatly reduces the level of risk!

Let's Get Started:

1. Get your Group together
2. Pick a date and time(1 hour) & Let me know!
3. Pick up supplies from me (give me a date and time)
4. Hold your cleanup –only collect trash that can fit into a trash bag.
5. Leave all collected trash bags in one location and inform me of that location!
