Constitutional Amendments What You Need To Know

Senator Barrow Peacock was first elected in 2011 to serve as the Louisiana State Senator for District 37. During his first term in 2012-2016 he served on the Senate Labor and Industrial Relations Committee, Retirement Committee, Select Committee on Oversight of Deepwater Horizon Claims and the Select Committee on High School Interscholastic Athletics.

During this second term of 2016-2020 he is the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Retirement and serves on several additional committees.

Peacock received his B.A. in business administration from Southern Methodist University and his M.B.A. from LSU Baton Rouge. Prior to being elected to the Senate, he was a partner in BHB Properties. He has also served on Boards for Christus Schumpert Health System Foundation, Louisiana Association for the Blind, Biomedical Research Foundation. He is a graduate of Leadership Louisiana and a member of the First Methodist Church of Shreveport.

Senator Peacock and his wife Melanie are the parents of three boys.

Spotlight

SIGN UP FOR THIS SPOT!

Jeb Breithaupt, a Capt. Shreve High School graduate (“back when dinosaurs were roaming the earth” as he tells his kids), graduated from LSU Baton Rouge with a degree in architecture and continued there to earn his MBA. He met his wife Robin in the Baptist Student Union on campus. They’ve been married for 43 years and they lovingly agree “divorce-never, murder-maybe”.

He is an artist and while at LSU he started his business selling etchings through eight agents and galleries all over the country and overseas. To date, he’s sold over 11,000 etchings.

Jeb’s grandfather came to Shreveport in 1923 with a bag of masonry tools and opened a masonry contracting business that quickly grew into a homebuilding business as Jeb’s father joined the company. Jeb took over the business in 1983 and now designs, builds and remodels houses (Jeb Design/Build). He bought the Rebath franchise in 2016 which has kept him even busier.

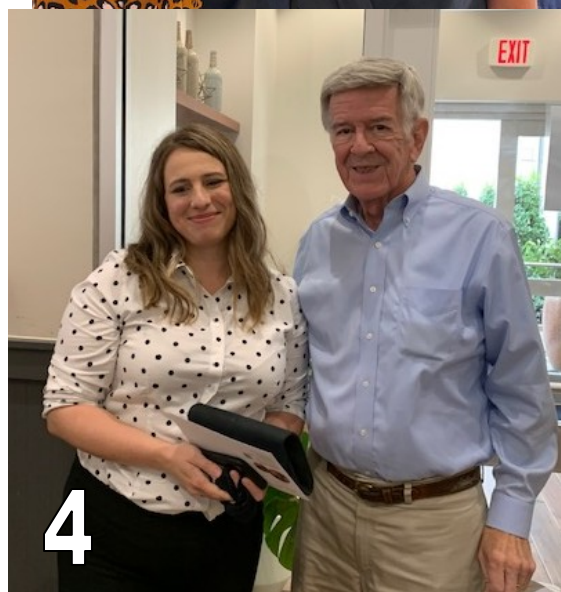

Jeb and Robin have four children: Drew is a neurologist at the University of California; Cullen is on track to be a partner at Boston Consulting Group in Austin; Hannah, their oldest daughter, is autistic, volunteers, rides horses and is also an artist; Mary Martha is an advertising executive in New York City and is pursuing her MBA at Duke Fuqua Business School. There is one grandson in San Francisco and two granddaughters in Austin. Jeb’s opinion? - “skip the children and go straight to having grandchildren!! You can feed them sugar and then send them home!”

Interesting fact about Jeb: He was president of the East Shreveport Rotary club in the 1990’s and was our club president in 2016-2017. He is a Paul Harris Fellow +1. Jeb believes in the good of Rotary because it benefits humanity locally and internationally and promotes high ethics and ideas.

New Member Welcomed

Charles Coleman was introduced on Tuesday as our latest new member. Charles grew up on a farm in Red River Parish and received his B.S. in business administration from LSUS. He began his long banking career in 1979 with Commercial National Bank. He is now the Executive Vice President of Business Banking for Citizens National Bank.

Charles has served as past board chair of Goodwill Industries, board member for North Louisiana Economic Partnership and is the current board treasurer for Red River Valley Association.

A Paul Harris Fellow, he was a prior member of the South Shreveport Rotary Club for 21 years and served that club as club president in 2003-2004. He is sponsored by Rich Brontoli and his classification is Banking.

Paul Harris Fellowships

Did you know that for every $1 you donate to The Rotary Foundation that you earn 1 recognition point? What can you do with those recognition points? NOTHING.....except give them away! When you reach 1,000 recognition points in your account you can then honor a family member, a fellow Rotarian or someone that you admire by naming them a Paul Harris Fellow. Want to know how many points you have? Just ask Judy Bellew!! You may already have enough points to give away! Or, you can buddy up with a fellow Rotarian and name a mutual friend.

Recently, President Lawrence presented Harry McInnis with his Paul Harris Fellowship +1 lapel pin. Harry joined our club in 2019 and supports the missions of The Rotary Foundation.
