NOON — 12:00 Meeting

September 20, 2022

Keynote

Jewish Traditions

Tuesday, 12:00 Noon

Historical Start 12:13 p.m.

In-Person at Hilton Hotel Restaurant & Zoom On-Line Option

Rabbi Sydni Rubinstein is a Shreveport transplant from Agoura Hills, California. Previously, she has served as a spiritual leader and teacher at Jewish organizations such as Ohr Shalom Synagogue (San Diego, California), IKAR (Los Angeles), and B'nai B'rith Camp (Neotsu, Oregon).

Rabbi Sydni earned her B.A. in music from Swarthmore College and received her ordination and M.A. in Rabbinic Studies from the Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies. Between degrees, she spent two years engaging in intensive exploration of Jewish text at the Pardes Institute of Jewish Studies in Jerusalem.

She especially enjoys teaching, learning, reading, writing and chatting about Jewish approaches to self care, the status of women in Jewish law, and Biblical notions of love of God.

When she is not at Aguydath Achim, you may find her practicing yoga, playing piano, or enjoying the season's produce. You may also find her spending time with her husband and best friend, Rabbi Feivel and their two dogs Buddy and Jax. She and her husband Rabbi Feivel met at the Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies and they each have a degree in music.

As we approach the Jewish high holidays of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, Rabbi Sydni will share insight about the Jewish traditions.
